Happy
Valentine's
Day

"The students from the evening shift are also joining the celebration of San Valentine's Day. Even though our classes begin when the sun goes down, our kindness, friendship, and joy shine just as brightly. We celebrate because love and friendship have no schedule — they connect us all."

HAPPY VALENTINE DAY
Dear class. ❤️❤️ 403 J.N.
I am happy to start this new Journey with you even if we are just getting to know each other, I hope we can share good moments, learn together, and become great classmates.
Wishing you all a day full of kindness and friendship
With good wishes
